

Thubelihle Dube

Ndebele Tutor

I am a native Ndebele speaker. Born and bred in Bubi district, Matabeleland North Province, Zimbabwe. A holder of a Diploma in primary education attained at United college of education in conjunction with University of Zimbabwe. Have an understanding of how language is key in people's everyday lives as it helps to know a lot about the history of one's culture and creates unity within the society.

Believes learning a language gives one a sense of belonging when interacting with a group of people that speak the same language. Very passionate about the teaching and learning of languages. Believes that languages can be taught in different ways i.e through music and games.
